YOUTH

ENDING VIOLENCE AND DISCRIMINATION

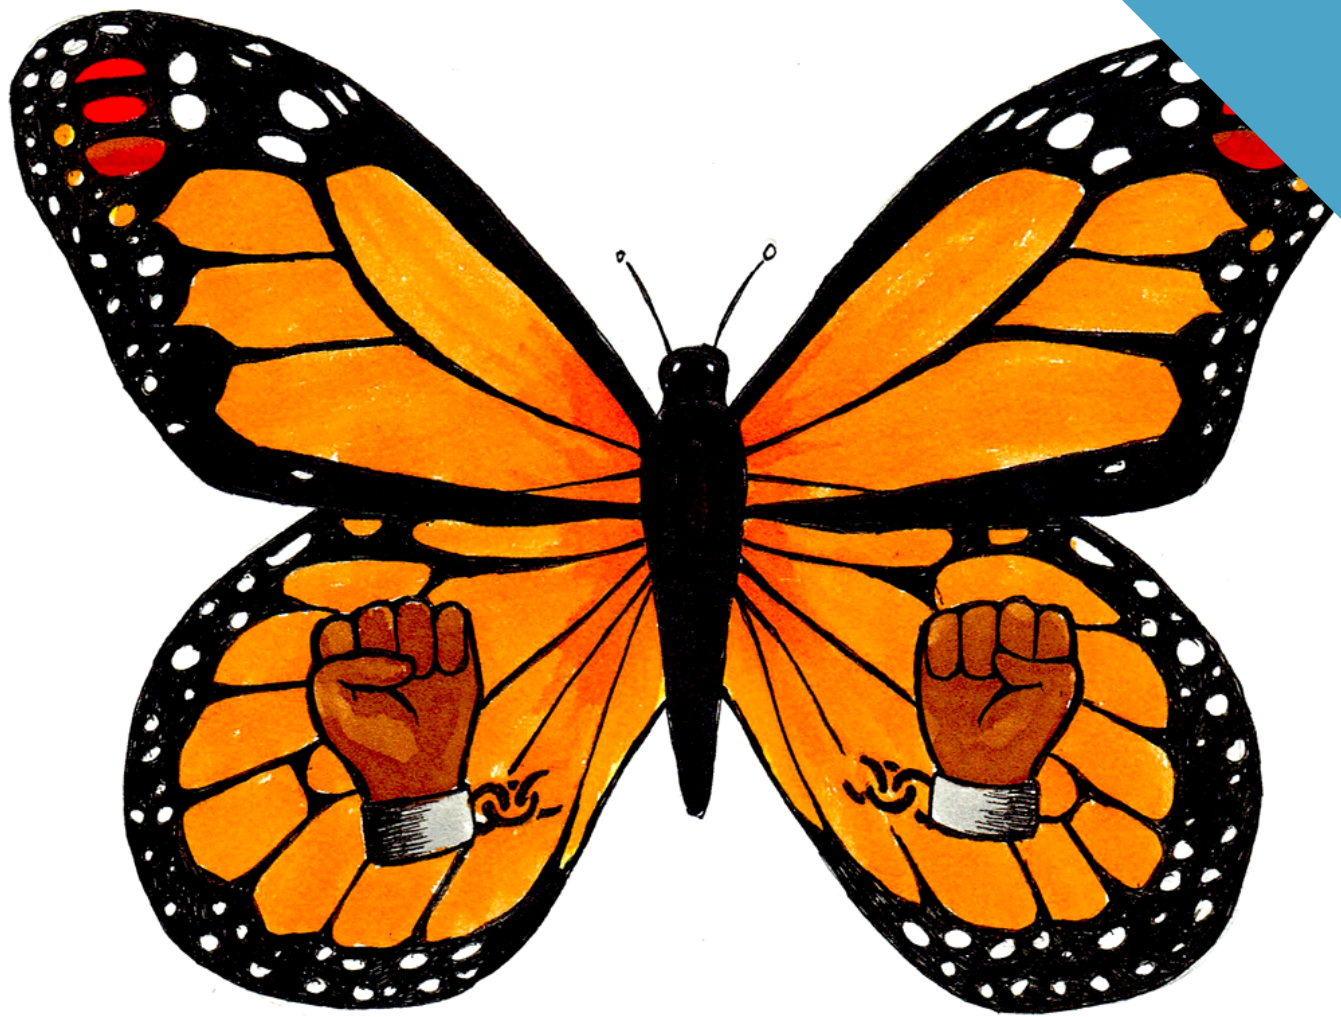

For young people from Asian, Middle Eastern and African backgrounds passionate about social justice

ABOUT SHAKTI YOUTH

Step by step, we will work towards empowering all migrant and refugee youth in Aotearoa/New Zealand to live lives with dignity, free from violence and fear, and to help create safer homes and communities together.

Shakti Youth was set up in 2010 to address the growing need for support to young people experiencing family violence. We do both intervention and prevention projects to challenge gender inequality in our communities and racism in the wider community.

Shakti Youth is continually growing with more projects and ideas to better address the gendered issues that young people of minority cultures are facing in Aotearoa/New Zealand.

OUR SERVICES & PROJECTS

FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION

Shakti has resources and projects to prevent family violence in migrant and refugee communities with attention to forced marriage, honour-based violence and intergenerational cultural conflicts.

ADVOCACY

We do advocacy work to ensure migrant and refugee youth rights are respected.

FAMILY VIOLENCE INTERVENTION

Shakti provides free and confidential support for women, youth and children from Asian, Middle Eastern and African backgrounds going through family violence.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

Our projects aim to empower young people to be leaders for social change.
